EACH TEAM WAS ANGRY

'Varsities and Pickups Call Each Other Names.

DIDN'T PLAY THE MATCH

FAILED TO AGREE ON SEVERAL POINTS.

Pickups Said, "They Are Pikers," and 'Varsities Said, "They're Scrubs."—Pickups Played a Practice Game Just the Same and Defeated the Junior 'Varsity Team.

The University team and a picked eleven, with Dana Smith at its head, had arranged to meet in battle royal yesterday on the 'Varsity campus. But they didn't come together, and the battle royal wasn't to be seen. The Pickups say that it was all the fault of the 'Varsity team, because they refused to play the game.

The University team and a picked eleven, with Dana Smith at its head, had arranged to meet in battle royal yesterday on the 'Varsity campus. But they didn't come together, and the battle royal wasn't to be seen. The Pickups say that it was all the fault of the 'Varsity team, because they refused to play the game.

Game Called Off.

"What's the matter now?" asked Captain Smith from behind his effluence of purple.

"Our men are willing to play the Y. M. C. A., but we refuse to meet any picked aggregation that has no right to lose, and we therefore refuse to play."

A look of disgust, mingled with despair, overspread the features of the Pickups. They didn't say much, but they were angry. They said that the men of the 'Varsity were afraid to meet them because of their greater skill and because they had practiced so much. In fact, they became quite sarcastic, and said several mean things.

"I can't understand it," said Captain Smith, "and I don't believe anybody else could. What they have done is against all rules of sportsmanlike conduct. It is the roughest deal I ever heard of. They are, in short, a gang of pickers."

"They are a lot of quitters," said Seave, and Augustus expressed himself by saying that they were a "bunch of hoodlums."

Statement by Riser.

Manager Riser made the following statement regarding the controversy: "A few nights ago I came up to see the Y. M. C. A. with regard to a game. Manager Axton said that the game would probably be arranged, and that the team would take it under consideration that night. The next day Axton told me that he couldn't play the game, and I said that it was my duty to play. He said that he would play, and I said that he would play, and I said that he would play."

"We went on practicing, thinking that it was the Y. M. C. A. that we were to play, and then Smith came and said that it was a game of catfish. They were trying to play with us, and because we saw their hand and called them they are sore. The University team is willing to meet any regular organized team in Utah, but we draw the line at playing scrubs."

And there the matter rested. The Pickups thought that they might as well have a practice, since they already had their suits, so they wandered their way to the 'Varsity campus. They were met there by the second team of the 'Varsity, who volunteered to play them a practice game. Gatchow, Wellington and Nielsen, who were attired in their suits, went in to fill out three vacant positions on the Pickup aggregation, and the game started merrily.

The most striking features were Smith's purple sweater and the way in which the crowd swarmed over the field. The spectators were mostly small boys. There were two girls at first, but they quickly disappeared when they learned that the big University team was not to play.

Margaret Makes Touchdown.

No touchdowns were made in the first half, and it was nip and tuck. Some long punts by Dana Smith were features of the play, and Augustus and N. Margretts went around the ends in stunning style. The only point of the game was scored in the second half, N. Margretts kicking over for a touchdown. B. Margretts missed goal and the final score was 5 to 0. The best work for the 'Varsity was done by Wade, Patterson and D. J. O. Criss, who were the whole corps of officials and his decisions were never once questioned.

The line-up was as follows:

Pickups: U. of U. Jrs. Nielsen, L. E. Harker, D. Smith, Nielsen, Niall, Gatehouse, L. G. J. Smith, Gatehouse, C. J. Cannon, N. Margretts, R. H. Patterson, Seave, P. B. G. Taylor.

AXTON DID NOT RESIGN.

Y. M. C. A. Manager Says He Had No Thought of Quitting.

The Tribune's story of yesterday morning, in which it was stated that Manager Axton of the Y. M. C. A. team had resigned from his position and had severed his connection with the team, is declared by the manager himself to be utterly without any truth.

"I did not resign the management of the Y. M. C. A. team," said Mr. Axton last evening, "and I have no thought of any such action. I am still with the team, as I always have been, and am working hard for a game with either the Carlisle Indians or the Chicago University, and hope to arrange a game with one of the two teams that comes west."

Lowell Juniors Win.

The Lowell Juniors defeated the Y. M. C. A. Juniors by a score of 10 to 0 in a good game on the Eighteenth ward square yesterday afternoon. Both touchdowns were made in the second half by Robinson and Gardner. The Lowells are anxious to meet any team in the city whose average weight is ninety pounds.

ELKES BEATS THE FRENCHMAN

WINS THE HOUR PAVED INTERNATIONAL BICYCLE RACE.

Six Thousand People Saw the Spirited Contest at Madison Square Garden, New York.

New York, Dec. 16.—Six thousand people saw Harry Elkes of America defeat Edward Taylor of France in the hour paved international championship at Madison Square Garden tonight. Most of the afternoon had been spent in the preliminary races, and the men who came to the scratch tonight in the other half of the crowd were not so numerous as those who came to see the main event.

In the big race for the hour paved international championship, Taylor of France and Harry Elkes of America started from opposite sides of the track. The Yankee began to gain at once. Either he was faster or his motor faster. At any rate he had gained his half lap on Taylor. Shortly after Elkes' machine broke down. He happened to be near Taylor at the time, so, like a flash, he swooped over behind Taylor and took his place. The crowd cheered the clever move to the echo.

For three laps he followed Taylor's pace. Then a relief machine from the Elkes camp started out, and not going far enough to pick him up again. Again the Glencoe Falls boy made a clean sweep, and caught his machine without losing an inch, and again the crowd went wild with enthusiasm. From then on the American was in the lead, and he kept it up. At three miles he had gained a lap.

At the eighth mile Elkes was two and one-half laps ahead. Taylor had not been dropped by his motor, but the Frenchman was not getting as good pace as the American. Elkes' motor was constantly being changed. Taylor rode behind the same machine he started with, and it was slow and heavy. He was against him by the other side. At the end of the ninth mile Elkes led by three and one-half laps. The Frenchman was exhausted. At the eleventh mile Elkes was leading by six and one-half laps. Taylor was leading by six and one-half laps. At the twelfth mile Elkes was leading by six and one-half laps. Taylor was leading by six and one-half laps.
